

Kaiser Permanente Northwest

PGY-1 Pharmacy Resident Biographies 2022-2023

Sharon Lee, PharmD

Hometown: Danville, CA

Pharmacy school: Purdue University, West Lafayette, IN

Interests: Primary care, mental health, drug use management, women's health

Hobbies: Exploring the Pacific Northwest, baking sourdough, doing pottery, painting, playing with my cat Truffle, and eating my way through Portland!

Why I chose Kaiser Permanente Northwest: I initially chose Kaiser Permanente Northwest for the variety of ambulatory care learning experiences and the well-established roles of pharmacists within Kaiser Permanente. When I interviewed, I was impressed not only by the wide scope of pharmacy practice, but also by the positive culture and enthusiasm of the preceptors. The residency team truly cares about the goals of residents and strives to tailor experiences to meet them. Since starting residency, my expectations have been exceeded in all aspects. I couldn't be happier to be a part of KPNW and am excited for the upcoming year.

Jasmine Nguyen, PharmD

Hometown: Vancouver, WA

Pharmacy school: Washington State University College of Pharmacy & Pharmaceutical Sciences, Spokane, WA

Interests: Primary care, mental health, anticoagulation, oncology

Hobbies: I enjoy reading, traveling, camping, exploring new restaurants, crafting, and spending time at the dog park with my puppy, Moose!

Why I chose Kaiser Permanente Northwest: I was drawn to Kaiser Permanente Northwest because of the focus on ambulatory care and ample opportunities to explore my professional interests in a variety of settings. During my interview, I felt a sincere sense of support and positivity from the preceptors, leadership team, and residents. I knew KPNW's strong support system would allow me to develop into a well-rounded pharmacist. I am thankful to be a part of the KPNW pharmacy team!
