

PGY1 Pharmacy Residency Program

Kaiser Permanente Riverside – Past Residents’ Projects

Year	Resident	Project Title
2022-2023	Melanie Ghosn	Risk Factors Associated with Chronic Opioid Utilization Among Opioid-Naïve Patients Post Orthopaedic Surgery of the Knee, Hip, or Shoulder
2022-2023	Andrew Tran	Evaluation of Deprescribing and De-Escalating Therapy in Inflammatory Bowel Disease Patients via a Pharmacist-Led Intervention Versus Usual Specialty Care
2021-2022	Venie Pham	Evaluation of a Pharmacist-Led Benzodiazepine Patient Self-Tapering Program
2021-2022	Melissa Vu	Deprescribing Duplicate Therapy in Older Patients via a Pharmacist-Led Comprehensive Medication Review and Interview Versus Usual Medical Care
2020-2021	Christina Stephenson	Hospital Alignment to Institute for Safe Medication Practices (ISMP) Targeted Medication Safety Best Practices
2020-2021	Christine Wong	Management of Hypertension in the African American Population via Pharmacist Telemonitoring with Home Blood Pressure Devices Versus Usual Medical Care
2019-2020	Alvin Fong	The Clinical, Economic, and Humanistic Outcomes of a Renal Pharmacist
2019-2020	Tina Menedjian	A Pharmacist Telephonic Intervention: Saving Lives, One Naloxone at a Time
2018-2019	Melissa Nuesa	Impact of a Pharmacy Deprescribing Service on Drugs to Avoid in the Elderly
2018-2019	Divvyot Singh	ED Pharmacy Services Comparison with ASHP Guidelines in Health Systems
2017-2018	Haig Haig	Pharmacist-Led Bilingual Service: Impact in the Latino Diabetic Population
2017-2018	Mariam Shafik	Opioid-Induced Respiratory Depression Prevention: Pharmacist Outreach Model
2016-2017	Millina Hanna	Bedside Discharge Pharmacist Making a Difference One Discharge at a Time
2016-2017	Jennifer Rafalski	Impact of a Pharmacist-led Proton Pump Inhibitor Discontinuation Initiative
2015-2016	Michelle Park	System Gap Analysis of Medication Reconciliation in Discharge to Skilled Nursing Facilities (SNF)

Year	Resident	Project Title
2015-2016	Ranjit Sidhu	Inpatient Pharmacist Impact on Glycemic Control Optimization in Hospitalized Diabetes Mellitus Patients
2014-2015	Jong Min Park	Evaluation of a Pharmacist-Led Team Based Hypertension Group Visit- Riverside Area Project
2014-2015	Debra Merritt	Inpatient Chronic Pain Management for Patients on High Dose on Opioids or History of High Dose Opioid Use/Addiction, Putting the Pieces Together
2013-2014	Jason Shan	The Impact of a Heart Failure Transitional Care Program with Home Telemonitoring Systems on Readmission Rates
2013-2014	Richard Garcia	Implementation of a New Risk Stratification Criteria to Identify High Risk Patients for 30-day Hospital Readmissions
2012-2013	PioJuan Lansangan	The Impact of a Primary Care Pharmacist-Led Medication Adherence Service on Cardiovascular Disease Outcomes
2011-2012	Mena Shaker	Evaluation of a Pharmacist's Clinical, Humanistic, Economic Outcomes in a Collaborative Chronic Pain Management Program
2011-2012	Melanie Nguyen	Evaluation of Inpatient Pharmacist Directed Interventions to Reduce Hypoglycemic Events in Hospitalized Patients
2010-2011	Amy Tan	Evaluation of the Impact of a Clinical Pharmacist in a Primary Care Patient Centered Medical Home Practice
2009 - 2010	Howard Umemoto	Safety Evaluation of Vancomycin: Pre and Post Analysis of ASHP/IDSA/SIDP Recommendations
2008-2009	Kimberely Messenger	Retrospective Multivariate Analysis of Hypoglycemic Events in Hospitalized Diabetics
2008-2009	Azeem Sayed	Development and Impact of an Outpatient Pharmacist Clinical Inreach and Outreach Program in an Integrated Healthcare Organization
2008-2009	Nicole Kloepfel	Safe Medication Use In the Elderly: An Evaluation of Skeletal Muscle Relaxant Use in an Integrated Health Care Organization (IHO)